What made this experience unique was that we did more than simply talk about the merits of a classical curriculum, we experienced them for ourselves, first hand....

I am writing to thank you for putting together a wonderful and carefully thought-out conference. It provided a much-needed respite from the stress and chaos of becoming assistant principal at a new high school.

—Peter Fletcher,
Assistant Principal,
St. Michael the Archangel
Baton Rouge, LA

IMAGINE a week of uninterrupted time to

- ☀ Explore the foundations of Catholic education with colleagues from around the country
- ☀ Discuss the history and integration of Western education, the Trivium, Mathematics, Science, Literature, Theology and Music
- ☀ Read and discuss authors such as Newman, Dawson, Shakespeare, Euclid, John Paul II and more
- ☀ Discuss these writings with an intimate group of peers
- ☀ Refresh and revitalize your sense of wonder and joy of learning!

THIS is truly an Academic Retreat like none other...
